

Welfare Support for the Self-Employed (BBZ), Netherlands (Inclusive Business Creation: Good Practice Compendium)

This case study presents an integrated support scheme for unemployed people who seek to start a business. It provides training, coaching and mentoring, grants, business counselling and a welfare bridge. The description covers the objectives, rationale, activities and impact of the scheme. It also discusses the challenges faced in delivering this support and the conditions for transferring this type of scheme to another context.
