OECD-KOREA WORKSHOP
STRENGTHENING LINKAGES BETWEEN STI AND ODA POLICIES IN ORDER TO ADDRESS THE GRAND CHALLENGES AND PROMOTE INCLUSIVE GROWTH
20-21 September, 2018
Venue: JW Marriott Hotel, Seoul, Korea

Dear participant of the KOREA-OECD workshop,

This is a brief logistic note designed to provide you with relevant information regarding your travel to Seoul, Korea, and your participation in the OECD Workshop “Strengthening linkages between STI and ODA policies in order to address the grand challenges and promote inclusive growth” to be held at JW Marriott Hotel Seoul on September 20-21, 2018.

Visa and Migration

Foreign nationals entering Korea are required to have a valid passport and a Korean visa issued by the Korean embassy or consular offices in their country. However, citizens from many countries are now permitted visa-free entry for a limited period under certain conditions. In order to check whether you are allowed to enter Korea without visa issuance and for other requirements, please contact a Korean embassy or consular office in your country or visit the following websites to confirm.

Getting to the city center from Incheon international airport

The organization of airport transfers is the responsibility of participants. There are several ways to get to the city center from Incheon international airport:

- Airport Railroad Express(AREX) train which connects Incheon international airport with the Metropolitan Subway line: <https://www.arex.or.kr/main.do#>
- Buses: Airport buses run from Incheon International Airport to many areas of Seoul. Tickets can be purchased at the ticket booths just outside the 1F Arrivals Hall of each terminal. Detailed inquiries on bus routes and bus stops can be made here: https://www.airport.kr/ap_1p/en/tpt/pblcpt/busstoinft1/busstoinft1.do
- Taxis: You can easily take a taxi from the airport at the taxi stands located just outside the Arrivals Hall (1F) of both terminals. You can choose to take a regular taxi, a deluxe taxi or a jumbo taxi depending on your situation.
- Regular Taxi : Base fare begins at 3,000 won (Seoul standard) with a 20% increased charge from the base fare at nighttime (24:00-04:00).
- Deluxe & Jumbo Taxi : Base fare for deluxe and jumbo taxis begins at 5,000 won (Seoul standard). There is no additional nighttime charge.
